Dear Joshua:

We are set to go beginning this Sunday in Outlook, and as I noted over the phone we will use the piece on artificial hearts.

✓ As for a title for the column, we have now settled upon "Science and Man." I think this will give you all the latitude you are looking for and satisfy our desire to have science somewhere in the title.

I'll airmail the first fruit of your labor as soon as it is off the press. Meanwhile, don't hesitate to call me if there are any problems.

Sincerely,

Howard
